ROCK STRINGS CAMP 2016

CONTINUE YOUR MUSICAL JOURNEY OVER THE SUMMER!

INSTRUCTOR BIO

We are THRILLED to announce Grammy nominated vocalist and violinist Tracy Bonham Fine will join us once more to teach our first-ever Rock Strings Summer Camp! A native of Eugene, Oregon, Bonham began singing at age 5, playing the violin at age 9, and studying piano at age 12. Her 1996 major label debut, The Burdens of Being Upright (Island), went gold in the US, Australia, and parts of Europe. Her hit single, Mother Mother, led to a pair of Grammy nominations in 1997. Bonham has released three subsequent albums and two EPs and has toured the world many times. She has appeared on The Tonight Show With Jay Leno, Late Night with Conan O'Brien, and Late Late Show with Craig Ferguson. Tracy has also appeared as guest vocalist / violinist with artists such as Blue Man Group, Juliana Hatfield, Aerosmith, Wayfaring Strangers, and Jimmy Page and Robert Plant of Led Zeppelin.

Joining Tracy will be Dale Bradley, ESYO instructor, local private instructor, and Eugene Symphony cellist. Tracy and Dale will work together with the campers on the arrangements, daily rehearsals and final performance. At the end of the week on Friday there will be a performance of the selected works for campers to show off their new rock skills for family and friends.

CAMP DESCRIPTION

This camp is for musicians who will be going into grades 6-10 in the fall who have at least two years of string experience. Campers will work with Grammy-nominated recording artist Tracy Bonham on current and classic rock songs arranged for string ensemble and vocals. Tracy chooses musical works by rock acts such as Radiohead, Arcade Fire, David Bowie, Devo, and the Talking Heads as a way to encourage classical string players to branch out and hear things differently. She uses her classical fundamentals and approach and applies it to the song and arrangement. Register TODAY! Don't miss your chance to study and expand your musical skills with this incredible artist!

WHAT IS EUGENE-SPRINGFIELD YOUTH ORCHESTRAS?

ESYO's vision is to inspire and lead students on a journey of discovery through orchestral instruction and performance. We do this by offering the highest-quality instruction progressing from beginning classes to advanced orchestras, offering need-based program and private lesson scholarships, and collaborating with area schools and arts organizations.

ESYO's sequential orchestral program includes five levels of orchestral training designed for students from grade four through the age of twenty-one. For grade-schoolers, ESYO has worked in partnership with area schools to maintain crucial first year classes called String Academies. Students may then continue through String Academy 2, for strings only, and three auditioned ensembles: Little Symphony (strings only), Junior Orchestra and the Eugene-Springfield Youth Symphony (both full symphonic orchestras). Other ESYO classes include summer musical theater, jazz band, ukulele, and rock strings camps.

Attendance Policy: Daily attendance is required. The camp experience is cumulative and campers work together towards their performance.

Refund Policy: Full refunds will be granted when the participant is denied participation because of class cancellation or closed enrollment. Since enrollment is limited and expenses continue regardless of individual attendance, we are unable to allow deductions, credits, refunds or, make-up days. ESYO reserves the right to cancel classes for any reason.

Financial Aid: There are a limited number of partial, need-based scholarships available (none greater than 50%). Please request an application when mailing in your registration form.
