CAMP DESCRIPTION

Rock Strings Camp is a great way to encourage young string players to branch out and hear things differently. Recording artists Tracy Bonham Fine and Dale Bradley will work with campers on current and classic rock songs arranged for string ensemble and vocals, including works by rock acts such as Radiohead, the Beatles, Hendrix, Bowie, Devo, Talking Heads, and more! Instructors apply their classical fundamentals to the songs, often creating their own arrangements. On the last day of camp, students will present a performance to show off their new rock skills for family and friends. This is Tracy and Dale's 4th year of partnering together to produce this fabulous musical experience! Don't miss your chance to learn with these great musicians in this cool rockin' way!

CAMP INSTRUCTORS

We are THRILLED to welcome back Grammy-nominated vocalist and violinist Tracy Bonham Fine to teach this popular camp! A native of Eugene, Tracy began singing at age 5, playing the violin at age 9, and studying piano at age 12. She is also a graduate of ESYO's Youth Symphony! Her 1996 major label debut, The Burdens of Being Upright (Island), went gold in the US, Australia, and parts of Europe. Her hit single, Mother Mother, led to a pair of Grammy nominations in 1997. Bonham has released five subsequent albums and two EPs and has toured the world many times. She has appeared on The Tonight Show With Jay Leno, Late Night with Conan O'Brien, and Late Late Show with Craig Ferguson. Tracy has also appeared as guest vocalist / violinist with artists such as Blue Man Group, Juliana Hatfield, Aerosmith, Wayfaring Strangers, Latin Playboys, Jimmy Page and Robert Plant.

Dale Bradley, cellist, composer and guitarist, is a Springfield native and a longtime member of the Eugene Symphony and the Oregon Mozart Players. A graduate of the UO School of Music, he studied with Robert Hladky and Hal Owen. Dale started playing cello and composing in 4th grade, filling up small notebooks with musical ideas. His compositions and arrangements have been played live across the west coast, from local retirement centers to the LA Philharmonic! Dale teaches beginning ESYO String Academy classes in elementary schools and has a private studio for cello, bass & guitar. Dale has played live and recorded with a wide variety of musicians. His own CDs include "Solo," "The Christmas Cello" and "Generations."

WHAT IS EUGENE-SPRINGFIELD YOUTH ORCHESTRAS (ESYO)?

ESYO's mission is to inspire and lead students on a journey of discovery through orchestral instruction and performance. We do this by offering the highest-quality instruction progressing from beginning classes to advanced orchestras, offering need-based program and private lesson scholarships, and collaborating with area schools and arts organizations.

ESYO's sequential orchestral program includes five levels of orchestral training designed for students from grade four through age 21. For grade-schoolers, our partnership with elementary schools provides vital beginning classes through our String Academy program. Students can then move up to String Academy 2 and continue on to three auditioned ensembles: Little Symphony (strings only), Junior Orchestra and the Eugene-Springfield Youth Symphony (both full symphonic orchestras). Other ESYO opportunities include summer strings, jazz band, ukulele, and rock strings camps.

Attendance Policy: The camp experience is cumulative and campers work together toward their performance. It's very important that campers attend each and every day.

Refund Policy: Since enrollment is limited and expenses continue regardless of individual attendance, we cannot allow deductions, credits, refunds or make-up days. ESYO reserves the right to cancel classes for any reason. Full refunds will be granted if the class is cancelled.

Financial Aid: There are a limited number of partial, need-based scholarships available (up to 50%). Please request a financial aid application when mailing in your registration form.
