CAMP DESCRIPTION

This popular jazz camp is led by the fabulous Joe Ingram - long time Jazzman! You'll have a ton of fun making music and gaining experience playing in a jazz band setting. Open to woodwind, brass, and stringed instruments, as well as bass, drumset, piano, and guitar. Many traditional big band jazz styles will be explored, including jazz influence on latin, rock, and pop. For students entering grades 7-12 in fall 2017 with one or more years experience.

★★ JAZZMAN JOE

Joe Ingram has taught music for 35 years, most of them as the band director at Shasta Middle School in Eugene. His concert bands consistently received superior ratings at festivals and his jazz bands at Shasta and Willamette High School won festivals in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Highlights include first place at the Lionel Hampton jazz festival, the sweepstakes award at the Bellevue Jazz Festival, and multiple first place awards for the High School Combo division at the Pleasant Hill Jazz Festival.

In 1993 he was awarded the Presidential Scholars Distinguished Teachers Award in a ceremony at the White House, and in 2005 was selected as one of six Oregon Middle School Teachers of the Year. In 2011 Joe was inducted into the Bandmasters of the Northwest Association and honored as ACE teacher of the year in the Bethel School District. In 2012 he was recognized as Outstanding Music Educator by the Oregon Music Education Association.

Joe traveled to Europe with the Oregon Ambassadors of Music three times and has directed many jazz and concert band summer camps through the Oregon Festival of American Music and ESYO. Joe is also an adjunct instructor in the UO music education department.

WHAT IS EUGENE-SPRINGFIELD YOUTH ORCHESTRAS (ESYO)?

ESYO's mission is to inspire and lead students on a journey of discovery through orchestral instruction and performance. We do this by offering the highest-quality instruction progressing from beginning classes to advanced orchestras, offering need-based program and private lesson scholarships, and collaborating with area schools and arts organizations.

ESYO's sequential orchestral program includes five levels of orchestral training designed for students from grade four through age 21. For grade-schoolers, our partnership with elementary schools provides vital beginning classes through our String Academy program. Students can then move up to String Academy 2 and continue on to three auditioned ensembles: Little Symphony (strings only), Junior Orchestra and the Eugene-Springfield Youth Symphony (both full symphonic orchestras). Other ESYO opportunities include summer strings, jazz band, ukulele, and rock strings camps.

Attendance Policy: The camp experience is cumulative and campers work together toward their performance. It's very important that campers attend each and every day.

Refund Policy: Since enrollment is limited and expenses continue regardless of individual attendance, we cannot allow deductions, credits, refunds or make-up days. ESYO reserves the right to cancel classes for any reason. Full refunds will be granted if the class is cancelled.

Financial Aid: There are a limited number of partial, need-based scholarships available (up to 50%). Please request a financial aid application when mailing in your registration form.
